For I, the Lord, this day am warning My children of upcoming distractions with what you see. You will not fully understand what is going on. My children, things are erupting all over this world that you haven't seen yet.

Many things will look confusing for some people and will be hard to deal with and bear. Some will turn away from Me because many still think prophecy is not for today since some prophecies have not come to pass when and how they expected them to.

There is a narrative about false prophets and false prophecies. This has always taken place in the church when a prophet is on the scene. Just know that I am speaking to My body in this hour for direction, comfort, revelation knowledge, marching orders, and truth to set My body free in an hour when your enemies are working overtime to bring you into a captivity you haven't even experienced yet. In dark times and times of trouble, I have always had prophets to lead, guide, love, and warn. That hasn't changed because I haven't changed.

These are the days for the prophets to prophecy, but also the days where prophecies will come to pass even quicker, to prove to My body and the world that I am the same God in My Word and I change not.

My children, do not be confused, do not get angry, do not judge, do not walk out of love, do not point fingers, and do not be divided in this day. My children are to come together and join forces today- no matter your denomination, beliefs, or doctrines. Come together in My Name and because of the sacrifice that was made for you. Do not be distracted or deceived, so your enemies cannot destroy you or bring you down in this hour.

My children, I have told you about a great shaking that will shake this world. You have only experienced tremors so far, just a little tremor here and there. But things are growing and intensifying. Do not fear this shaking. Do not fear what is about to be seen by the world. I am your protector, and I am protecting you in this hour from the judgment coming upon this Earth.

A great uproar is coming. A great upset is coming. A great explosion of truth is coming, and this truth will not be denied.

The reason for the delay and things taking so long was because My children were not ready and not awake. My children, you can't see what I can see right now or more of My church would have split apart. Soon, and very soon, you will see all these things I have been saying. Things you haven't been able to understand yet, you will soon see come to pass. But until then, I will continue to say, stay focused, stand firm, and stand strong even when it appears like times are tough. Remember, this is for your enemies, not you. This darkness, the sorrow and the devastation, are not for My children but for the enemies that have held you in great captivity.

Soon, and very soon, My children will once again know Me as their deliverer and Redeemer in a way they have never known before.

Prepare for this darkness. Prepare for this calamity. Prepare for this shaking with My Word and with Me. All will be well with you, and you will grow stronger in Me and My Glory, saith the Lord your Redeemer.

The military will continue to fill the skies above you, oh United States. Things are going on above you and in the waters that surround you. Your enemies wanted a war. Their main desire is to take out My eagle in this time, a time that appears as great weakness. Yes, I said weakness. A weak and fraudulent government is on center stage. But this, too, will end in a way never expected by your enemies or the American people.

A great disruption is coming that will disrupt this fraudulent government. It will destroy their plans and remove them from their places of power once and for all.

A fall is coming that people didn't expect. No, not in this way, because it has never happened like this before, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Tensions are growing in the Middle East.
Tensions are growing in China.
Tensions are growing in the United States.
That tension will be destroyed by My hand.

Terrorists and their infiltrators in this Nation will never have what they want. No plan of the enemy shall succeed, saith the Lord.

Watch Australia. Not only will a weather event take place, but something significant will also occur in their government. It is falling, and you will soon see a collapse of their government and its power, saith the Lord.

Something significant and extraordinary will take place in Canada. Trudeau will not last much longer. A great upset will take place, and Trudeau will leave the seat of the president. No matter the plans or attempts to keep him there, saith the Lord.

Something significant will happen to a prime minister in Europe. The vacating of a seat will once again take place.

Keep your eyes on Michigan. The fall of the governor is about to take place. This will also take place in California. I have told you the fall of the governors is here, saith the Lord.

The Pakistani government will fall unexpectedly.

Your enemies will try something on the Gaza Strip, but it will fall short and not succeed.

These are the days you will see many things collapse and many things fail. Many things will be hard to hear and hard to believe. But remember, My children, this is the great fall of a system that was never meant to be. A fall of your enemies' empire that they built to keep you in bondage. This empire is collapsing before your eyes, and things you are comfortable with or that seem normal will suddenly shift and change.

Drastic changes are about to take place- the fall of governments and economies. But do not fear, for I am with you. I am your deliverer. I am your protector. I am the avenger. I am the judge over this Earth, and justice is being served, saith the Lord your Redeemer.

I AM BRINGING A GREAT DELIVERANCE TO MY EAGLE THAT IS ABOUT TO BE CELEBRATED

For I, the Lord, this day am telling My children not to give up on Me and not to give up on your freedoms. I will not leave things the way they are. Things will begin to drastically and suddenly change, and the world will not be able to deny I am the One True God. Your enemies will know who My children are and who My nations are that they cannot have. I will not be mocked, and neither will My children.

A great shaking.

Great disturbances.

Great turnarounds.

Great upsets.

Great outcry.

Great warfare.

Great governmental changes.

Great military changes.

Yes, mighty moves are taking place- moves that will no longer stay in the shadows or behind the scenes. No, this is the time when all things hidden, good or bad, are to be made known, saith the Lord.

Your enemies are feeling the heat, and their walls are closing on them. Great explosions of exposures are about to shake the enemies' camps that they will not recover from and they will not get up from.

A great shaking will be seen on the side of the left, and for some on the right. My infiltrators have all they need. So it is time to move forward. It is time to move in on your enemies and take back what they have stolen from you, saith the Lord of Hosts.

A shaking in the Congress.

A shaking in the Senate.

Movements will not go unnoticed.

Someone has all the cards, and those cards are about to be played. Strategic plans are in order and in place. A delay had occurred in taking back this Nation. Something significant needed has now been found- an enemy no one thought they could catch. And all those connected and leading up to this person are now in the right hands.

Something significant has just been revealed to My David and his army that had gone unnoticed, but I have turned the tables over, and even those who infiltrated him are caught. The war for this Nation has been fought behind the scenes, but the curtains will be removed to display and put on center stage what has really been going on against My Nation, saith the Lord.

A rattling has begun to shake loose the chains that have held My Nation hostage by the hands of the evil rulers, the oppressors, and the taskmasters, saith the Lord.

Someone very well-known, a longtime government official, is about to pass away suddenly. Your enemies didn't even see this one coming. They will not have an explanation for it, but it will bring shockwaves to the party of the left because it was a well-known leader in their army.

My children, you are about to see many more like this in the coming weeks. Things will appear one way when they are actually another. Do not be afraid and do not think their narrative is true. All their lies are about to be exposed.

A well-known news anchor is about to die suddenly. Another one will step down, and another one will get fired. A great shaking in the news media, oh, United States, is about to be very noticeable. Yes, My hand is moving against the snake pit that has held this Nation in captivity. A great silence from many in your news media is about to take place because I am shutting their mouths, saith the Lord of Hosts.

A very well-known actor will suddenly die. Yes, it will bring shockwaves to Hollywood.

My children, many shock waves are coming that will shock the world out of being normal. There is a shift taking place that will not go unnoticed.

Wales: this name will be in your news, and great exposures are about to come to an explosive place. Charles is about to be fully exposed. It will bring shock to London- a shock never felt like this there before. A great lie is about to be exposed that will no longer stay buried, saith the Lord.

A significant weather event is about to hit the United States. It is very abnormal, My children. It is man-made. Yes, I will expose this, too. They cannot keep blaming Me for things they are creating to bring great destruction and great distraction.

My children, many things are going on in the waters that you haven't seen, but you soon will.

Brace for what is coming by getting in My Word. I will not fail you, and I am bringing a great deliverance to My eagle that is about to be celebrated, saith the Lord your Redeemer.

BIG CHANGES ARE COMING TO WASHINGTON DC

For I, the Lord, this day am telling My children to deny your enemies' access into your lives, your families, your finances, your governments, your laws, your nations, and into your churches. Yes, you have the power to deny their access. You have more power in you than they have in them.

Remember, I am in you, and I am the Great I AM. Lord, how do we deny their access, their power, and their control over our lives when they have it already? They have taken over; they have destroyed our nations, our freedoms, our economies, our schools, and our churches. So how can we stop it or have the ability to turn anything around? We are nothing in their site. They have all the resources they need. They have stolen our elections. They have stolen everything from us everywhere we look.

I say to My children who think this way and who have asked these questions- do you believe what you see and hear more than My Words? I have stated in My Word- greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world. I reside on the inside of you, and I have more power than your enemies because I am the Most High God. Say what I tell you to say, do what I tell you to do.

There is no more time for delays. There have been many already because some of My church refuses to fight, they refuse to believe, they refuse to stand and declare My Words. They believe what your enemies are doing more than My Words, just like My people in the wilderness. No matter what I did and how much I proved to them, it wasn't enough, and that is happening right now with My body.

But My remnant is awake, and they are about to cause a great shaking with My Words. So My children who choose to obey My Words say this today:

We deny the enemies of Almighty God access to control.

Access to steal.

Access to prosper.

Access to hold us hostage.

Access to keep our governments.

Access to keep our nations.

Access to keep manipulating with their news media.

Access to keep stealing our elections.

Access to keep our rightful elected officials out of what actually belongs to them.

We deny their access to keep the big lie in control of our lives.

We command the big lie's access to hold our Nation null and void, annihilated and destroyed.

We deny access to this fraudulent and fake administration to keep their charade going.

We command their masks to be removed.

Their power to be revoked.

We command that when they try to lie truth will come out instead.

We command judges to uphold the constitution.

We command justice to be served.

We command those seats back from the ones who stole them.

That they can steal no longer.

We command freedom in our House.

We command freedom in our Senate.

We command freedom from the White House.

Freedom in our Supreme Court.

Freedom in our civil courts, and that rightful judges will stand and uphold the law.

We command freedom in our states from any unruly government.

We command restoration of all that has been stolen to be restored.

Yes, My children, you can command the works of My hand to move. It is in My Written Word- I have given you the authority in this world. I will uphold My Word, and I am faithful to perform it. So, speak these words, shout these words. The time has come for you to see the works of My hand. So do not give up hope. Do not give up on Me. I am a sure thing, and I am faithful. I have guaranteed you the victory over all of what you see, and you are about to see a bigger Red Sea moment than the original one. Freedom is yours, and freedom is now, saith the Lord your Redeemer.

Oshkosh will be in the news for an unusual reason.

Hendersonville: this location will be in your news for a surprising reason.

Washout: this phrase will be in your news for a significant reason.

Another major scandal will be exposed at NBC. It is far worse than you think. Pay to play and major connections to this fraudulent administration. They will not be the only ones connected to the scripts that were handed out with what to tell the American people. They were all in on it, including Fox.

None of the mainstream media will be excluded regarding exposures and judgment. The mouths of the lions and the liars are being shut. Their control is being stopped; their narrative is being destroyed, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Carpool: this word will be in your news for an unusual reason.

Boston is about to be in your news for a significant reason.

Massachusetts: a scandal will be exposed in your state, big time.

Hollywood: more explosive evidence and exposures are being released to the public. Every connection to this fraudulent government will no longer be hidden. A giant quake of truth will hit this area that will pour out, exposing every dark secret you tried to hide, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Waukesha: this name will be in your news for an unusual reason.

Hydroplane: this word will be in your news for a surprising reason.

Watch the weather. Something unusual and significant is about to take place that will get your attention.

Escalator: this word will be in your news for a surprising reason.

Escalade: this word will be in your news for a significant reason.

My children, keep your eyes on Florida. I say again, something significant is about to take place there.

Broadband: this word will be in your news for an unusual reason.

A massive winter storm is coming that is unusual. It is large, and it is shocking. This winter storm is a symbol of the cleansing that's happening in My Nation. They will call it a monster storm in your news. Watch what it does to DC, and remember I told you many significant and unusual things are happening everywhere to show you I am in control and your enemies are not.

Watch DC. Watch the White House. Watch the Capitol building. Something big is coming that is about to change the scenery of their Capitol.

So, My children, get ready for great changes to rock your Nation that will bring great joy and great restorations, saith the Lord your Redeemer.
